We love and sponsor the Kewaskum police department. It's always a great time when our local officer's stop in for a visit, and it usually ends up with an incredible photo!
 We will be closed next Monday (6/19) but we will be open for Party on the PAVEMENT, Tuesday (6/20)
 🎵 We may even have live music! 🎵

That's a wrap on summer school! What an amazing group of students we had this year. I can't express enough how amazing this group of students was and I hope that each and every one of them had a blast and, most importantly, gained valuable insights into public service.

We owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to the organizations that made this class possible. 🙏
Special thanks go to:

Kewaskum School District for allowing us to teach this class in the first place

Fleet Farm West Bend for their generous donation of t-shirts, which were proudly awarded to all our students

Laatsch's Piggly Wiggly- Kewaskum for helping our students feel like real police officers... by giving them doughnuts!

West Bend Police Department, Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, Kewaskum Fire Department, Washington County, Wisconsin Sheriff's Office SWAT Team, and the Wisconsin National Guard for coming to our class. Their presence and expertise taught students about the collaborative nature of our work.

Washington County, Wisconsin Sheriff's Office and Washington County District Attorney's Office for allowing us to come and tour the county jail and county courthouse. It was definitely eye-opening to all the students.

Finally, I want to acknowledge of all the students who signed up for our class. With nearly fifty kids learning about various ways to get involved and serve, we have high hopes that we'll be recruiting a few of them someday! 😊

Have an AWESOME summer JPA Class of 2023!
